

WILLIMANTIC

NORWICH BULLETIN
Willimantic Office
41 Church Street Telephone 1622

A full quota of members of the school board including the recently elected member, L. Leo Thompson, was present at the regular monthly meeting held in the probate office at the town building Wednesday evening. The board re-considered for the coming year by re-electing Dr. Frank E. Guild chairman and Robert A. Case, secretary. The chair then appointed the following members to the various sub-committees:

Teachers: H. Clinton Lathrop, Frank E. Guild, William J. Sweeney, Horridas Dion and Mrs. Robert H. Peaton.
Properties, Insurance: Walter R. King and Dr. W. P. S. Keating.
Transportation: Walter R. King, Dr. W. P. S. Keating and L. Leo Thompson.
Library and Textbooks: Mrs. Robert H. Peaton, L. Leo Thompson and William J. Sweeney.
Evening School: Horridas Dion, Walter R. King and Mrs. Robert H. Peaton.
Graduation Exercises: Mrs. Robert H. Peaton, Walter R. King and L. Leo Thompson.
Auditors: Horridas Dion and H. Clinton Lathrop.

The members present were Dr. Frank E. Guild, Dr. William J. Sweeney, Christopher C. Case, Walter R. King, William J. Sweeney, Horridas Dion, H. Clinton Lathrop, L. Leo Thompson and Mrs. Robert H. Peaton.

The report of the transient officer, Jean P. Pannas, showed three cases during the month of September of which two were from the Natchaug Grammar school and one from the Willimantic Street school. They were investigated and adjourned. The report of Dr. W. P. S. Keating, school physician was given and accepted. It was voted to pay the salary of Charles H. Caswell, teacher of music at the public schools at $1,500 a year. A matter concerning transportation of children in one of the outlying districts was discussed without action. The crowded condition of the Natchaug Grammar school was also considered. Many of the members of the board voted to attend the lower grades at this school to see if something could not be done to provide studies at the usual hours instead of morning sessions for a section and afternoon sessions for the other section. Parents have been told that conditions could not be improved until there was more room in the building. The situation of the Natchaug Grammar school and the immediate need of more room to relieve the crowded condition of the school was discussed. The school was instructed to embody into the exact truth in the article, which will be printed and distributed among the faculty and students of the school. The school is to be delivered to parents and others interested in the building of a new addition. The article is to be prepared before the meeting of the board to be held in the near future. Ordering of bills paid subject to the approval of the auditors brought the session to an end.

Left and Clara Upton, man and wife, of No. 17 Clark street, were before the local police court yesterday morning charged with intoxication and breach of the peace in which they were not guilty. The complainant was one of their neighbors and the time shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday morning when Officers Barker and Caswell responded to the call. When they arrived on the scene the Uptons were in their own domicile with a male guest who was enjoying a meal but who left when the millions of dollars entered the house. According to the officers the Uptons were talking loudly and were not very drunk. The man of liquor, however, was strong in the place but there were no beverages in sight. In addressing the pair, Judge Frank H. Fox told them that they were before the court not often but that they would give them one more chance. He continued their case for two weeks and they are brought before the court during that time both will go to jail.

The dance held under the auspices of the Central Labor Union at the town hall has a decided success, about one hundred couples being in attendance. The orchestra of this city provided a delightful dance music. At intermission Caleb J. Albino catered.

Tred T. Gann of the state police barracks at Stafford Springs has been called to the police station in the police station yesterday from 3 a. m. to 3 p. m. meeting with applicants for motor vehicle driver's licenses. The number of applicants was considerably less than for the past three weeks.

Justice of the Peace Curtis Dean has given a decision in favor of the defendant in a case of Mrs. Dora Blanchette vs. Mrs. Louise Duchesne.

Killourey Bros.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND EMBALMERS
88 Union St. Willimantic, Conn.
Phone 295 (Lady Assistant)

JAY M. SHEPARD
Succeeding Filmore & Shepard
Funeral Director & Embalmer
10-52 NORTH ST. WILLIMANTIC
Lady Assistant. Tel. Connection

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE
Willimantic, Conn.

THE SEASON OF NEW APPAREL IS HERE

with the russet colored leaves meekly dropping from their branches—it is indeed a good indication of fall weather. The change of season as seen through our new stocks is not left to the imagination. It would almost seem as though a magic hand had been waved fairy-like over the store, especially in the section devoted to Suits, Coats, Dresses, Blouses and Separate Skirts, where new arrivals are coming in every day.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.

front of the Gem theatre. The end of the wire lay on the sidewalk with the end on the black paving. The Rockville Willimantic Lighting company was notified of the occurrence. During the time that elapsed before an employee came to attend to the matter everybody in the vicinity believed the wire to be "live." Lineman Riquier came upon the scene and grabbed hold of one end of the wire explaining that it was an arc light wire used at night and was "dead" in the afternoon. The wire was repaired.

PLAINFIELD

Recently the men of St. Paul's congregation met in St. Paul's hall to consider the advisability of meeting occasionally during the autumn and winter months for the purpose of sociability and the discussion of common problems and interests. There were 23 men present and all felt that St. Paul's church should have a men's association. It was decided that the association take the name of St. Paul's Brotherhood.

The following officers were elected: President, Charles Heaton; secretary, James Greenhalgh; treasurer, J. Taylor; executive committee, J. Riding, P. H. Lee, Mr. Hamber, H. Johnson, F. H. Baxter.

The Brotherhood met again on Thursday, Oct. 5 and all present partook of a delicious supper. The president very pleasantly explained the object of the brotherhood and invited all the men of the congregation to become members. Four members of the Plainfield band rendered several selections which were greatly enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, Oct. 26. The evening will be given to a discussion of the question, Should All War Debts Be Cancelled?

St. Paul's church will celebrate its tenth anniversary on Sunday, Jan. 14, 1923. The Right Rev. Clarence E. Brewster, D.D., bishop of the diocese of Connecticut, will be the preacher on that occasion.

This annual meeting of the Clerics of New London Archdiocese was held at Christ church, Pomfret, on Monday, Oct. 8. Luncheon was served by the ladies of Christ church. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Rev. J. Martin of Hebron, to succeed Rev. R. L. Graham of Christ church, Norwich, resigned; vice president, Rev. Walter P. Forchert of Willimantic, resigned; secretary, Rev. D. Coombs, Plainfield, resigned. The next meeting will be at St. Albans church, Danielson, Monday, Dec. 19.

Mrs. Coombs and Master Richard Coombs who were visiting relatives and friends in Newfoundland, arrived home Saturday.

Miss Dorothy Tillman spent the week-end visiting friends in Hartford. Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tillman, was accidentally burned on Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Pratt was taken to a Providence hospital last Monday for an operation. Mrs. Pratt will remain with her while at the hospital.

On Wednesday evening at Plainfield St. John's church, No. 224, K. C. held an installation of the newly elected officers for the ensuing year. District Deputy T. Frank Cunningham, Taylor at Mrs. Theodor R. Parker of Church street left Thursday for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. Louis H. Hills of Westbrook, Me. They will be away for a week or more.

Philip Dodge of Storrs, a high school friend of Walter Jordan, is spending the holiday week end with him at his home, No. 120 North street.

Dr. Edward S. Cotter of Boston is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Cotter, of No. 46 Park street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Persons, of No. 15 Prospect street and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carey of Norwich, have returned from a week's automobile trip to the White Mountains, Bethlehem, N. H. and back.

Raymond J. Jodoin of Baltic, democratic candidate for congressman in the Second district, was in this city Thursday afternoon in the interests of his candidacy.

The herd of cows maintained at the county jail at Brookline entered an apple orchard this week and after eating their fill the fruit which was lying on the ground were found to be very much intoxicated. They were taken to the barn at the jail and treated by Dr. and Mrs. Louis H. Hills of Westbrook, Me. but the others are on the road to recovery.

"Lou" Tracy, the well known minstrel man, was written to a local friend from Jacksonville, Fla., under date of October 3, that the show he is with was going big and making money but the weather was extremely hot. The show was from Springfield, Ohio, on August 17. The itinerary takes in the Gulf States and as far as the West.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis H. Mason have returned from their three weeks' vacation spent in an automobile trip through the New England States.

Michael J. Brennan, of Fall River, Mass., was a local visitor Thursday.

Miss May Davidson of No. 228 North street is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Andrews of Stamford. Mr. Andrews was formerly principal of the Willimantic Street school in this city.

Mrs. Thomas J. Little of No. 222 North street has returned from several weeks spent in the Hartford hospital.

Mrs. Charles W. Albaugh of No. 17 North street with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Edgerton of No. 58 Pleasant street, left Thursday for a two days' trip over the Mohawk Trail.

Miss Jeanie Baldwin of Forest Hills, L. I., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. E. Baldwin, of No. 115 Prospect street.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover W. Collington of Winfield, Kansas, are the guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Hills of "The Ridger".

There was a ripple of excitement on Thursday afternoon on Main street when an electric feed wire broke at a connection of a transformer on a pole in front of the Gem theatre.

The funeral of Charles H. Dawley was held in the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The church was filled with relatives and friends of the deceased. The members of Woolter lodge, F. & A. M., attended in a body. The Rev. W. O. Perkinson, pastor of the Congregational church officiated. Two selections were sung by Mrs. A. L. Stebbins and E. R. Gillette. After the services in the church the funeral cortege was escorted to the cemetery by the Masonic fraternity and their burial service was held, S. P. Willard officiating.

Nattie Jackson Temple, Pythian Sister, held their meeting in Pythian hall Tuesday evening. One candidate was initiated. After the ceremonies a lunch was served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Miss Florence Dawley of New York and Mrs. Josephine Kelly of Meriden, sisters of C. H. Dawley, Mrs. Hattie Reynolds, Mrs. Chester Hussey of Norwich and Mrs. E. H. Johnson of Plainfield were in town Wednesday attending Mr. Dawley's funeral.

The names of 53 women and 36 men are on the list of those who voted at the meeting of the selectmen and town clerk Saturday.

Wheatena

The Cereal that "Tastes Good"

Your Grocer Sells Wheatena.

The Wheatena Company, Wheatonsville, Rahway, New Jersey held their meeting in Pythian hall Tuesday evening. One candidate was initiated. After the ceremonies a lunch was served and a social hour was enjoyed.

There was a meeting of the Bacon Academy Athletic association Wednesday at 2:45 p. m. in the principal's room. The basketball season was discussed and officers elected for the coming year: President, Samuel Mintz; vice president, Arthur Stodding, Jr.; secretary-treasurer, John Wallis.

A committee to arrange the location of the hall for the games was named as follows: Morris Bridger, Nathan Hankin, Louis Solomon and Steven Tedus.

William T. Curry, Edward and Irving Jones of Lebanon were in town Wednesday attending the funeral of C. H. Dawley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton P. Bradway of Stafford Springs are visiting at Riverview, Ralph Seney, financial director, and Mrs. W. O. Berckman of South Main street.

Thursday evening the pastor of the Congregational church will deliver the second address of the series of Our Great Revivals of the New Testament—Pentecost.

The following officers were elected at the town meeting held last week Monday: Assessor, James A. Connors; board of relief, Charles N. Loomis; selectmen, William H. French, R. R. Knollard, James A. Connors, Frank H. Strong, auditor, Harley B. DeWolf, Ernest E. Strong; grand jurors, Franklin H. Eaton, Arthur P. Blair, Waldo E. Beebe, Nathan C. Maine, E. Selma Baker, James A. Connors; tax collector, Paul E. Clement; constables, Samuel R. Woodward, George Whippert, Charles R. Warner, Charles A. Lee, Otto E. Maine, Edward Peters; registrar of voters, Maude L. Woodward, Frederick D. Finley; town school committee, Harley B. DeWolf, Maude L. White.

The highways were left in the care of district managers as follows: Center, R. K. Jones; South, F. H. Strong; southwest, W. R. French; north, Marvin W. Howard and northwest, James Fletcher.

It was voted to appropriate $2,000 for the highways. Of that amount $2,000 is for the maintenance of the roads and the balance for permanent improvements.

Mrs. C. E. Pomeroy has returned to Windsor after spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. William C. White.

Miss Louise J. Hutchinson of Hartford spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Jennie Bolton.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lawton and family of Hartford spent the week-end in town.

Pietro Cantino has sold his farm on Brandy street to John Lamardo of New York. Mr. Cantino will move his family to Meriden.

John Elmrich of Birch Mountain has sold his farm to Lorenzo Butigiani and Antonio Pano and will move to Bloomfield.

B. L. McGuck, Charles F. Sumner and Clement M. Sumner were in New York last week attending the world series games.

Miss Minnie McAleer of South Man-

WINDHAM

Rev. Samuel Lane Loomis of New York will be the speaker at the Congregational church next Sunday.

Plans are being made for the annual harvest supper. The members were added to the supper, Miss Dorothy Brown the program, Mrs. H. S. Maine the waiters and Miss Gertrude Arnold the tables and decorations.

Rev. A. W. Clifford had an operation performed on his nose by Dr. W. H. Hendley at St. Joseph's hospital last week. Rev. W. M. Brown had charge of the services at the church Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Anderson is the guest of her cousin, Erskine Sawyer and family of Petersburg, N. Y.

The Parent-Teachers Association had a good attendance at the first meeting of the season. Those members were added: A number of questions were discussed. Sandwiches, cake and tea were served by the officers, Mrs. Gladys Sawicki, Mrs. Amy MacDonell, Mrs. A. W. Clifford and Mrs. D. P. Oehrig.

Mrs. Albert Bates and daughter are to close their home here soon and will be the winter in Hartford and New Jersey.

Miss Julia Guild has been the guest of friends in New York.

Mrs. J. Alden Weir and daughter of New York have closed their summer home here and have gone to Brandville for a few weeks.

Miss Mary Packer is visiting friends in Mystic.

Miss Stillman of Chicago has been the guest of Miss Bingham.

Miss Helen L. Perkins of Norwich recently spent the day with her aunt, Miss Emily Perkins at the Inn.

L. H. Johnson has sold his interest in the firm of Johnson and Potter to William Potter, a brother. John Potter will take the civil service examination for postmaster in Mr. Johnson's place.

The Woman's Missionary society is to hold its first fall meeting with Mrs. R. Bixby on Wednesday.

Mrs. Tracy of Watertown spent Sunday with her cousin, Mrs. T. P. Pagnan.

Miss Ethel Safford of Willimantic is the guest of Mrs. George Cook.

A party of young people enjoyed a trip to Hartford Sunday. They were the Misses Una Broseaux, Cornelia Broseaux, Hattie Johnson and Mary Burrill, Harold Barrett, Floyd Scarborough, Arlen James and Roy James.

Frank Bennett has purchased the old Bullard place in Phoenixville and expects to repair it and move there soon.

Orrin D. Durkee, Mrs. Ellen Week, Mrs. Abbie Balch, Mrs. Lena Durkee and Mrs. Annie James motored to Norwich recently to call on Miss Barnes, a former resident of Mt. Hope.

Town meeting day passed off very quietly here. Everything went democratic.

The Bassett family were recent visitors in Pomfret.

All The World At Work (From the United States Commerce Report.)

Johnannesburg, South Africa, is to spend some $5,000,000 on municipal abattoirs, native housing and tramways.

America's market for hardware, heating plants and construction supplies is handicapped because of lack of American clothes in China.

Brazil wants well-made light woolen bathing suits, for men and women in Palestine.

Register Must Go From the Indianapolis News.

Missouri Democrats, having adopted the Goddess of Liberty as their political emblem, are planning the goddess, it is now up to the Indiana Democrats to make a bit with the women voters by substituting the hen for the Goddess.

All The World At Work (From the United States Commerce Report.)

Johnannesburg, South Africa, is to spend some $5,000,000 on municipal abattoirs, native housing and tramways.

Brunswick

PHONOGRAPHS AND RECORDS

The Song Which Revealed Her Heart

Life's sweetest moments are often lived to the strains of music, which expresses more than words can say. You will never forget that happy evening when The Brunswick told more than words could ever say.

The home which lacks a Brunswick isn't complete—it is deprived of one of the greatest sources of amusement and entertainment for yourself and your friends.

And there is no need to go without one, as we will gladly explain to you. Then go home and tell your family how much you want a Brunswick and how easily they can get one for you.

The Price You Want To Pay Convenient Payments
Brunswick Phonographs come in so many different styles that you can find just what you want at the price you want to pay.

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS

The Talking Machine Shop

EVERYTHING MUSICAL 24 FRANKLIN SQUARE

done and the ladies deserve credit for their work in giving it.

J. W. Baker has been discharged from St. Joseph's hospital and is staying with his brother at present.

Mrs. B. C. Bugbee is entertaining her cousin, Mrs. Lillian Libby, who is attending the auction at Gilbert Mathewson's in Mt. Hope.

A party of young people enjoyed a trip to Hartford Sunday. They were the Misses Una Broseaux, Cornelia Broseaux, Hattie Johnson and Mary Burrill, Harold Barrett, Floyd Scarborough, Arlen James and Roy James.

Frank Bennett has purchased the old Bullard place in Phoenixville and expects to repair it and move there soon.

Orrin D. Durkee, Mrs. Ellen Week, Mrs. Abbie Balch, Mrs. Lena Durkee and Mrs. Annie James motored to Norwich recently to call on Miss Barnes, a former resident of Mt. Hope.

Town meeting day passed off very quietly here. Everything went democratic.

The Bassett family were recent visitors in Pomfret.

All The World At Work (From the United States Commerce Report.)

Johnannesburg, South Africa, is to spend some $5,000,000 on municipal abattoirs, native housing and tramways.

America's market for hardware, heating plants and construction supplies is handicapped because of lack of American clothes in China.

Brazil wants well-made light woolen bathing suits, for men and women in Palestine.

Register Must Go From the Indianapolis News.

Missouri Democrats, having adopted the Goddess of Liberty as their political emblem, are planning the goddess, it is now up to the Indiana Democrats to make a bit with the women voters by substituting the hen for the Goddess.

All The World At Work (From the United States Commerce Report.)